Rainier Beach Arts & Crafts Market

Dorothy: 12/5/2015 @ 10 am – 2 pm All tables sold out except for 3! Doing great. We are opening up the remaining tables to people outside of the Rainier Beach, but Rainier Beach residents will get priority. Still must be hand crafted.

Nominating Committee & Elections

Meeting in the next couple of weeks to set up the slate for December. Email will go out.

Boo Bash recap

A little bit smaller than last time. Weather dampened things a bit. At least 1000 kids.

Lots of fun and entertainment. The kids had a great deal of fun and since it was 2 pm - 5 pm so they could still go out and get candy afterwards.

Liz Zimmerly has more info: Toxic's in home

Didn't show up.

New Business:

Veteran's Day Speaker

Mel & Don spoke about their time in the service. Spoke about the servicemen who are still unaccounted for.

Raymond Williams from Seattle Farm Co-Op

Down by the Safeway on Rainier Ave. They help gardeners, chicken, and goat owner's in the community. Come on down and meet him and the staff and say hi. They are putting together classes on how to raise chicken and how to garden. Eventually they want to expand with a commercial kitchen for more lessons. Going to be at light up the beach this year.

Membership opportunity that gives you a discount $25.00 lifetime-membership if you also volunteer; $50.00 / yearly otherwise. Membership gives you a discount on merchandise.

Veteran's group cleanup project

11/21/2015 9 am – 12 pm. Maipes creek plaza across from Rainier Beach high school. They have a tool trailer that will be out there, it has an amazing amount of tools and is available for any public cleanup. They are going to have veterans group in charge of the cleanup. Going to be doing a litter clean up. Going to be located at Saars.

Announcements:

Grace is doing SPD project through Seattle University. Public safety survey going on right now for the entire city. Publicsafetysurvey.org. The survey will help SPD understand how they will be distributing their officers.

Light up the beach 14 locations set up, people can walk around and get into local business who will compete with holiday displays and hospitality. There will be free Santa photos too at Safeway in Rainier Beach. Friday December 4th, 2015 5-8 pm. Adjourned @ 8: pm

Kathleen, South East District Counsel meeting next Wednesday will be having a city advisor coming to speak about what is coming up.

Dave & Jeff were thanked for hanging the first aid box.

3rd Saturday of the month there will be another planting at dead horse canyon.

Next garden tour Saturday June 11th, 2015. It will focus on South Rainier Beach.

Letter's to Santa program is going on now. Lakeside has invited us to join but we decided not to do it this year as there wasn't enough time to get mobilized.

Next meeting 12/9/2015
