

Tom Beck
Natalya Roberts
Su Harambe
Gerd Prewett
Brett Boynton
Clansy Campos
Alan Ross

2018 Goals

- More activities than 2018 (block party in early August?)
- More visibility within our community
- Increased community engagement by networking with other related groups
- With increased gentrification work to retain “neighborhood” feel of RBCC

Review of RBCC By-Laws – 2018 Chair Nominees of Standing* and Other Committees

- Finance* – Tom Beck to ask Joann Dechant and Kathie Weibel
- Social* – Clansy Campos
- Membership* – Natalya Roberts
- Building – Su Harambe (Brett and Natalya to support)
- Technology – Alan Ross

Prioritized Special Projects (for Kathy Weibel to schedule speakers)

1. Transportation and streets (why does SDOT do what they do?)
2. Rebecca Soldana – Speak about the state of our city and neighborhood)
3. City budget

Other ideas included Police / Crime, Immigrants / How to help our neighbors, Educational fund raising, Parks, Environment, Housing, Non-profit, Affordable care, Business and Recreation

May 12-13 Bridge2Beach Planning – clean-up of stairs or blocks (they provide gloves, bag and other tools and pick up trash bags). Need to pick a project.

Social Calendar

- Game time (Sunday, March 18 from 1-4 pm)
- Wine tasting on Saturday, April 21
- Plant swap in April (date TBD)
- Garden tour on June 9

Seattle Public Utilities RB Litter clean-up project on 2/1/18. Then, in March, they will begin surveying to see if neighborhood is seeing improvement (Tom will share their map).

Your Voice – Your Choice - Accepting project applications thru 2/2/18 (send to Natalya if you have an idea).

Group Collaborative – Lifeline to groups who can help network local businesses, neighbors and organizations to resources and others. Natalya to investigate time and $ commitments required.

Cascadia Poetry Festival – Do we want to donate our space in Spring 2019 to them (or reduce hourly rate), assuming that they're a non-profit? Tom will reach out to them.

February 14 Agenda

1. Nominate and vote on committee chairs
 - a. Recruit for committee members
2. Review Project and determine lead for Bridge2Beach
3. Share info on Litter Clean-up Pilot
4. Review Game Time, Wine Event and other social event plans
5. Clarify spending limit and by-laws.