Membership Committee

- No news

Building Committee

- No news other than rentals are up.

Finance Committee

- RBCC continues to do well financially. From Jan 1 through today the club has grossed $17,,216. We have several rentals coming up in addition to the dance center so Gerd projects we will end the year well. RBCC donated $500 to Boo Bash.

Social Committee

- $1500 budget for Harvest Fest for the evening after Thanksgiving (Nov. 23) was approved. Clansy needs lots of volunteers for this – sign up on-line.

Tech Committee

- No news.

Other Items Discussed:

- Boo Bash - Natalya and Aaron volunteered to get coloring books and crayons with our logo on the back for RBCC booth at Boo-Bash.
- Arts and Crafts market will be at RBCC on December 1 from 10-2. It will feature local artisans with quality hand-crafted goods. 300 people expected Dorothy needs volunteers to put out yard signs.
- SPU reviewed water/waste-related projects in neighborhood. Colleen Doten, Leslie Webler and Dylan King talked about:
 - Taylor Creek Culvert Replacement
 - Mape Creek Day-lighting (2015)
 - South Lake Wash overflow project in Seward parks (completed)
 - Projects to increase fish passage, reduce flooding and sediment build-up
- Jackie advised that there will be a public meeting at RBCC on 10/13 regarding the history of and master plan for Kubota Gardens.
