Membership Committee

- No news

Building Committee

- No news other than rentals are up. 5 star rating on Yelp!

Finance Committee

- RBCC continues to do well financially. YTD the club has grossed $19,358 and netted $4,199. With Harvest Fest, Gerd expects to end the year netting $5,000. Assets total $35K, with $23K in savings and $12K in savings.

Social Committee

- Harvest Fest – 11/23 - Clansy got a DJ but still needs lots of volunteers for this – sign up on FaceBook. Lots of great raffle prizes including Elton John, cooking class with Ruth, lots of great Art, a signed Ichiro ball, ukulele lesson from Brett, as $100 Red Wing gift certificate, a soap basket, tech support, and an interior design consultation.

Tech Committee

- Created web-site for Arts and Craft event on 12/1/18.

Other Items Discussed:

- Boo Bash – Brett reported it was a hit. Expense was $456 plus $500 donation. Hand-outs were popular, especially the play-doh.
- Arts and Crafts market will be at RBCC on December 1 from 10-2.
- Looking for more locations in RB for air quality monitors.
- Joann, Joan Weiss and Alan Ross will be our Board nominating committee.

Featured Speaker

Hal Brookins, Certified Business Mentor with the Greater Seattle SCORE (Rainier Beach) spoke. SCORE (formerly called Service Corp. of Retired Executives), provides free business advice to small business owners or those who wish to start a new business. It has local workshops (Columbia City, libraries, etc.) and online expert resources. Looking for volunteers – mentors, help develop business plans, chapter support, subject-matter experts and mentors).
